

Brandon G. Johnson

Brandon G. Johnson has been practicing civil defense litigation since 1992. Prior to joining the firm he was employed for many years as a member of the Philadelphia Staff Counsel office of Travelers Insurance Company, concentrating his practice in commercial lines litigation. In this capacity Brandon represented numerous Fortune 1000 corporations as well as smaller businesses in the defense of premises liability, products liability and major property loss actions. He also has considerable experience in defending motor vehicle and uninsured/underinsured motorist claims for both commercial and individual clients. Brandon is an experienced courtroom attorney and has successfully tried many cases to verdict.

Mr. Johnson serves as a Judge Pro Tem for the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and has been appointed as a special panelist for the Pennsylvania First Judicial District Compulsory Arbitration Program. He is also frequently selected by counsel to serve as an arbitrator in Alternative Dispute Resolution proceedings.

Brandon earned a B.S. in Computer Science from Shippensburg University in 1986 and a J.D. from Widener University School of Law in 1992. He is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, as well as the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and the District of New Jersey.
